

CME Disclosure Form

In accordance with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education's Standards for Integrity and Independence, everyone in a position to control the content of a CME activity is required to disclose to the accredited provider all financial relationships that you have had in the past 24 months with ineligible companies. An individual has a relevant financial relationship if he or she has a financial relationship in any amount occurring in the last 24 months with an ineligible company whose products or services are discussed in the CME activity content over which the individual has control. Ineligible companies are those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. The ACCME does not consider providers of clinical service directly to patient to be an ineligible company.

1. Have you had a financial relationship in any amount in the last 24 months with any ineligible company (see definition above)? Yes No

If Yes, please complete the chart below and respond to Question #2.

If No, please attest below and date

Please disclose all financial relationships that you have had in the past 24 months with ineligible companies (see definition below). For each financial relationship, enter the name of the ineligible company and the nature of the financial relationship(s). There is no minimum financial threshold; we ask that you disclose all financial relationships, regardless of the amount, with ineligible companies. You should disclose all financial relationships regardless of the potential relevance of each relationship to the education.

Name of Ineligible Company An ineligible company is any entity whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.	Nature of Relationship: Examples of financial relationships include employee, researcher, consultant, advisor, speaker, independent contractor, royalties or patent beneficiary, executive role, and ownership interest. Research funding from ineligible companies should be disclosed by the principal or named investigator even if that individual's institution receives the research grant and manages the funds.	Has the Relationship Ended? If the financial relationship existed during the last 24 months, but has now ended, please check the box in this column.

2. Does the CME content over which you have control contain information about healthcare products or services of the ineligible company you identified in the chart above? Yes No

<input type="checkbox"/> I attest that the above information is correct as of this date of submission
